Acme Contract Review Checklist

Review Rules

- Contract must identify both parties.
- Effective date must be explicitly stated.
- Contract term must be specified.
- Payment terms must be clearly defined.
- Termination rights must be specified.
- Confidentiality obligations must be present.
- Liability limitations must be present.
- Intellectual property ownership must be defined.
- Governing law must be specified.
- Any contradiction between the master agreement, Statement of Work, and amendments must be reported.
- Every finding must cite the exact source document and location.
- If the source documents do not provide enough evidence for a requirement, report it as unsupported rather than making an assumption.
